

Body language of dogs

We use body language to give people signs about how we are feeling. Animals do the same. What do you notice about the body language of these dogs?

I think this dog is feeling

I think this dog is feeling

Body language of dogs

Teacher Notes

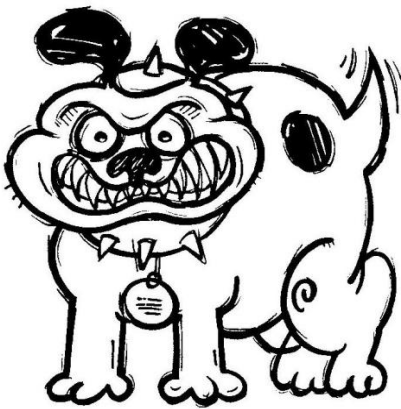

For personal safety, we stay away from frightened and angry dogs.

Ears forward and relaxed

Tail wagging

Mouth is open and relaxed

Teeth are bared and lips back

May be snarling or growling

Looking at you

Ears stiff

Hair raised on it's back

Tail stiff (may be wagging slightly)